

MI·VIDA®

✧ Día de la Independencia ✧

SEPTEMBER 15-17

Chiles en Nogada is a traditional dish enjoyed in celebration of Mexican Independence Day, September 16th.

By incorporating the colors of the Mexican Flag, this delicious dish brings the Independence Day celebration to the Mexican table.

— GREEN —

Roasted and peeled poblano peppers, filled with picadillo, a mixture containing shredded meat, aromatics, fruits, and spices.

— WHITE —

Velvety cream sauce made with almonds and pecans.

— RED —

Pomegranate seeds.

Chiles en Nogada

Poblano Pepper-Filled Slow-Braised Beef, Peaches, Apples,
Almonds, Olives, Almond-Pecan-Goat Cheese Sauce, Pomegranates

$28

